

Rule 307 Daily Acreage Allocation

(Adopted August 6, 1985; Recodified August 20, 1998; Recodified August 22, 2002)

- ~~1 — DAILY ACREAGE ALLOCATION: The amount of acreage burned daily on permissive burn days, of open burning in agricultural operations, shall be no more than that acreage determined by the California Air Resources Board (CARB) from the daily basinwide acreage allocation equation contained in the approved Agricultural Burning Plan as stated in Title 17 of the California Code of Regulations. The allocation determined by the CARB shall be in rice acreage equivalents.~~
